

Assoc. Prof. Vladimír PUCHMAYER, MD, PhD

Curriculum vitae

Born: May 18th, 1929 in Plzeň (Pilsen), Czech Republic
Died: February 27th, 2008, Prague
Graduated: as Medicinae Univ. Doktor (MUDr., MD) at the General Faculty of Medicine of the Charles University in Prague on November 27th, 1953
1980: scientific title CSc. – PhD.
1988: associated professor
1990-95: (possible after the end of communistic period): Director of the IVth Medical Dept. of the 1st Faculty of Medicine, Charles University since 1995: retired

Practically the whole professional life working in the above mentioned IVth Medical Dept. as physician and University teacher. 2 years (1968-70) as Humboldt scholar in a special vascular dept. in Germany (Engelskirchen).

Publications:

4 monographs, some chapters in monographs, about 150 publications (one third in English) and over 300 lectures (also about one third in English at different congresses)

Functions:

Member of the committees and board of different professional and non-professional organizations (for instance also the President of the Lions Club), President of the Czech Angiological Society (1990-2000), co-founding president of the CEVF, Member of the Executive Board of the International Union of Angiology, Member of some editorial boards (International Angiology, Thrombosis and Haemostasis, Angéiologie and others.)

Awards:

Prize of the Czech Cardiological Society for the English monograph
“Smoking as a risk factor for the development of arterial occlusive disease” – 1985

Prusík-prize of the Czech Angiological Society for the monograph (together with K. Roztočil)
“Practical Angiology” – 2001

Silver Medal of the Charles University
Medal of the 1st Faculty of Medicine of the Charles University
Purkyně Medal of the Czech Medical Association
Golden Medal of the Association of the Bavarian Internists
Honorary President of the Czech Angiological Society

Honorary member of the:
Czech Medical Association
Slovak Medical Association
Czech Society of the Czech Physicians Prague (founded 1862 by J.E.Purkyně)
Czech Cardiological Society
Czech Phlebological Society
Angiological Societies of Cuba, Austria, Slovakia, Switzerland